Run chase proves too big for NT

Northern Territory gallant in defeat, are ruing their missed opportunities whilst chasing the South Australian total of 7-320.

The NT innings was in great shape at lunch (1 – 150) with Arnout Faveere providing the anchor, while Darcy Short played his natural, aggressive game.

The first hour after lunch proved pivotal when NT lost Faveere (49 runs), Short (run out for 80 runs), Alex Bleakley, Jacques Vandernest and Kieran Toner.

A positive 54 run partnership from Jonathon Crowe and Matt Hanna gave NT some hope.

However with the dismissal of Hanna (23 runs) and Parrington, Crowe was left stranded when he was the last man dismissed for a very well compiled 65 runs. The NT runs totalled 284.

The NT team has another rest day on Tuesday and then take on ACT on Wednesday and Thursday in the final two day match of the Championship.
